Captain to arrest street-walkers at night. In such cases he always used his own judgment as to the making of arrests. He could "H the character of the women by their actions.

Nearly every woman he had ever arrested had been fined or sent to the island, the witness said, He could not remember the names of any of the women he had arrested.

Denies He Was in a Saloon.

Q How came you to be in a fixth avenus asloon at 7 o'lock in the morning, not long age drinking with e well-known gambler and three women? A I don't remember any such occurrence.

Q If I say that one of the girls answered than name of Clars and another Tillie, does that refresh your memor? A It don't remember any such asses there.

Q Will you swear it positively? A. I will.

Simply Filling in Time.

Mr. Gon's assertion that the Committee had simply been alling in time for the last two or three days was apparently heing verified in the character of the testirony that was being given.

Continuing, the witness said he had heard and road that the Tenderion was a potorious precinct for loose characters and level women. He did not see so much of it himself.

He was asked if he knew of special officers receiving money to permit women to parade the street, and he replied that he never heard of it.

Chairman Levow asked Mr. Goff if there was anything in the law that prohibited the detailing of policemen to private stores.

Abraham Heyman, who was a previous witness before the Committee, testified that at 3 o'clock this morning he saw Kenry, his partner, the ward man, and three women in Murphy's saloon, at Twenty-ninth street and Sixth avenue.

"They called one Berth and the other Clara. I was with a lady friend. They put whiskey in the beer I ordered for her, because they knew I was a Lexow witness."

Reward Offered to Get Him Drunk.

The witness said two years ago Officer Reffer offered any one $25 who would arrest him.

The mitness was Isaac Stern, of the firm to sak the Police Board.

The next witness was Isaac Stern, of the firm of Stern Bros., who testified that it was the custom of the firm to ask the Police Board.

"We usually give the men a few dollars or a Christmas present in addition to their salaries," he said.

William B. Muxlow, an expressman, of 1257 Third avenue, the next witness, said that several years ago he and his father were arrested by Ward Man Campbell on a charge of murder, which was false.

NO STATUE TO EMMET.

The plan to erect in Central Park a statue of Robert Emmet, the Irish patriot, has practically been abandoned because of lack of interest. about a year ago at a meeting held i about a year ago at a meeting held in Hardman Hall, at which City Chamberlain Joseph J. O'Donohue presided. Several hundred dollars were contributed at the time, but since then little or nothing has been done.

It is opposed by some on account of Emmet's last words that his epitaph be not written until Ireland has gained her independence.

Another cause for the failure of the scheme is the difference of opinion among the different factions. Dr. Thomas Addis Emmet, a grandnephew of the patriot, says the fund was started by irresponsible parties for effect.
